

An aerial night photograph of a city harbor. In the foreground, a large building with a distinctive, illuminated, wavy roof stands out. The harbor is filled with water, and several ships, including a large sailing ship, are visible. The city skyline is lit up with various lights, and the sky shows a sunset or sunrise with orange and blue hues.

Ehemaliges Hauptzollamt

The Former Main Customs Office of the Port of Hamburg is impressive for its history and its unique location: in the middle of Hamburg’s UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Speicherstadt. Plan your event in the place where tea, spices, coffee and tobacco from all over the world were once controlled.

While the exterior of the building with around 1000 m<sup>2</sup> of event space impresses with its historic red brick architecture, the interior impresses with its modern design - stylishly restored stucco, high ceilings, dark floorboards and a floor-to-ceiling glazed front facing the canal give the space a light-flooded, contemporary ambience.

Whether gala dinners, weddings, summer parties and trade fairs in the stylish “Zollhalle” or exclusive conferences in the elegant seminar rooms on the upper floor - your event will be an experience in the Former Main Customs Office.
