

An aerial night photograph of a city harbor. In the foreground, a large building with a distinctive, illuminated, wavy roof stands out. The harbor is filled with water, reflecting the city lights and the sunset sky. Several ships are visible in the water, and the city skyline is lit up in the background. The sky is a mix of orange, pink, and blue, indicating dusk.

BallinStadt

The BallinStadt Emigration Museum is one of Hamburg’s most important locations and also a symbol of the title “Gateway to the World”. Here on the Veddel, where around five million emigrants once set off for the New World in search of a better life, you can now celebrate in exclusive event locations - surrounded by an incomparable, historic atmosphere.

Whether a company party, wedding or conference: in BallinStadt, every occasion becomes a special experience. With individually combinable event specials, you can immerse yourself in the role of an emigrant: in the BALLINSTADT role play, you can experience the time of the great waves of emigration up close and embark on an emotional journey to the New World.

On arrival, you will receive your personal departure passport and, together with other “emigrants”, go through the stages of a historical emigration.

But that’s not all: the spacious outdoor area, the impressive exhibition ship, the modern seminar room or the stylish foyer - the BallinStadt premises offer you a wide range of possible combinations for conferences, congresses, weddings or classic evening events!
